Hills Hornets Touch Association Code of Conduct

The Hills Hornets community is built on the principles of respect, teamwork, and fair play. This Code of Conduct outlines the values and behaviors we expect from all members, including players, referees, coaches, parents, administrators, and officials. By adhering to this code, we ensure a positive, inclusive, and enjoyable environment for everyone involved.

General Values:

- Encourage honest and open competition.
- Respect individual differences.
- Support innovation and creativity.
- Share failures and celebrate success.
- Share responsibilities and workloads.
- Work as a team to achieve goals.
- Zero tolerance for bullying, including on social media.

Players:

- Play by the rules.
- Be loyal to yourself and your team.
- Show sportsmanship and exemplary behavior.
- Enjoy the game and give your best.
- Cooperate with coaches, managers, teammates, and officials.
- Respect opponents.

Coaches:

- Teach respect for the rules.
- Develop respect for opponents and officials.
- Be reasonable with demands on players.
- Avoid overtraining.
- Respect all players and their contribution to the team.
- Stay informed on coaching principles and trends.

Referees:

- Apply rules fairly and consistently.
- Be patient and courteous.
- Promote fair play and sportsmanship.
- Use common sense to maintain the spirit of the game.
- Stay updated on rule changes and officiating principles.

Parents:

- Encourage children to enjoy the sport.
- Focus on effort and performance, not just winning.
- Teach children to play by the rules and resolve conflicts peacefully.
- Respect officials' decisions.
- Appreciate volunteer coaches, officials, and administrators.
- Respect the rights and dignity of all participants.

Administrators and Officials:

- Ensure equal participation opportunities.
- Maintain safe and appropriate equipment and facilities.
- Focus on participants' needs over spectators' enjoyment.
- Improve coaching and officiating standards.
- Promote fair play and sportsmanship.
- Encourage rule changes that enhance safety and participation.
